KEYNOTE

2020 is soon reaching its end. What a year it has been! We could not have ever expected our first full year of operation to witness a pandemic of the severity we are suffering. Yet, we cannot be prouder of what we have all achieved to maintain the level of patient safety, quality care and experience that we have become known for. All while opening new services, progressing efficiency and productivity measures, and managing the risks that the pandemic poses.
